How Our Payday Loans Work

1. Simply submit the quick cash online form with all the required details.
2. A representative from your preferred location will call you directly to explain the payday loan process and ensure that you know which required items to bring with you: a blank check from an active account in your name, most recent pay stub, driver's license or government-issued ID. Our loan representative will also answer any questions you may have about Carolina Payday Loans, Inc.
3. When you arrive at a Carolina Payday Loans, Inc. location, an associate will perform an evaluation to establish the amount of cash you qualify for. After that, they will explain the application process and answer any questions you have about payday loans.
4. After you complete your payday loan application, you will get the money you need on the same day or the following business day.

Payday Loan FAQs:

Can I apply if I have bad credit?

Yes, you can still apply for the loan even if your credit is bad.

Where is a location near me?

We have locations all around South Carolina for you to choose from. We also have a store locator on our website where you can find the nearest store.

How and when do I repay the loan?
